

All the Little Children

One of the highlights for everybody involved in Dance Variations - teachers, choreographers, parents, friends and families alike is the appearance of our very youngest dancers onto the stage.

There are always so many stories to tell from working with the very youngest end of the school, from their unpredictability, their wonderful lack of inhibition, to their sheer excitement and enthusiasm. There can be no doubt from the reaction of the audience as they enter the stage that they add a special sparkle to the whole show and it wouldn't be the same without them.

Here are a selection of some of our youngest Dance Variation Performers from over the years. Can you identify the years they appeared and the name of the number?
